

Industry Forum Courses 2010

Welcome to the first edition of the Industry Forum Newsletter for 2010.

Happy New Year to you all

We have taken the opportunity to update and further improve all our courses for 2010. All courses are aligned with ISO/TS16949: 2009 and the relevant editions of the Core Tools Reference Manuals. We have also further enhanced the 'Learn by Doing' methodology of all the courses by including even more case studies and delegate exercises.

The full programme of open training can be found at www.industryforum.co.uk, alternatively we can offer to deliver any of the courses at your company premises. If you have up to 12 delegates that need training, this is by far the most cost effective solution, with training often costing less than £100 per delegate.

For further information contact Jenna Porch on 0121 717 6614 or e-mail jenna.porch@industryforum.co.uk.

Through our network of international partners we can also offer training in many countries throughout the world. For more information contact Paul Hardiman at paul.hardiman@industryforum.co.uk.
